A porty of veterang of the Mexican was not last night in the Cointy court rison at the call of Mr. Edward Miles, who was elected Chairman thereof, with Colond F. L. Huquor for Secretary.

Resolutions adopted in Amits were read by Mr. Miles and unanimously adopted. These resolutions are quite lengthy. Thair serious presolutions are quite lengthy. Thair serious presolutes sarrate the results and advantages which have necround to the whole people by reasons of the services of these veterans in the war with Mexico. They deplure the fact that while this nation has, in other instances, pensistend its suddiers immediately after war, these few surving veterans have waited 35 years for some recognition of their services. In the resolutions following the presumble floy sense while appeal to Congress to grant a suitable pension to them in response to the recognited withing magnanismly of the nation. They appeal to the Texas representatives in Congress to use their detained underwer to procure the passage of an appropriate act upon the oth, you and Site of December.

Resolutions of condolesse on the death of Robert Jesusly, who died on the 4th instant, were appropriately passed.
